DETAILED ACTION

1. This Office Action is in response to the amendment filed on July 9, 2007.
Examiner acknowledges claims 1-17 are pending in this application, with claims 1,-3, 7, 9-11, and 15 having been amended, with claim 16 having been newly added.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 101

2. 35 U.S.C. 101 reads as follows:

Whoever invents or discovers any new and useful process, machine, manufacture, or composition of matter, or any new and useful improvement thereof, may obtain a patent therefor, subject to the conditions and requirements of this title.

Claims 1-17 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 101 because the claimed invention is directed to non-statutory subject matter. Specifically, independent claim 1 recites the "permeable filtering material affixed to said periphery of said facemask to sit between said periphery of said face mask and a face of a user...". This clause (and other similar clauses) appears to positively recite a portion of the human body. The use of "face of a user" raises the possibility that the Applicant is positively reciting a face of a human being. Accordingly, claim 1 is considered to be directed to non-statutory subject matter. 1077 OG 24 (April 21, 1987). Dependant claims 2-17 incorporates the non-statutory subject matter in the claims from which they depend. Applicant can overcome this rejection by reciting "...said facemask adapted to sit between said periphery of said facemask and a face of the user...".

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

Art Unit: 3771

3. The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(b) the invention was patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country or in public use or on sale in this country, more than one year prior to the date of application for patent in the United States.

4. Claims 1-17 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being anticipated by Rezuke et al. (US 5582865).

As to Claims 1, 2, 7, 8, 9, 10, and 15-17, Rezuke discloses a face mask (Figure 3) having a periphery designed to abut a persons face and a tri-dimensional breathing material (Figures 1, 2, 2a, and 2b) having an electrostatic charge there across; said tri-dimensional breathing material attached to said periphery of said facemask to form a filtering enclosure. (Column 3, Lines 6-10). Regarding the electrostatic charge, Rezuke discloses the absorbent particles may include ion exchange resins and further discloses the use of impregnated iodine. (Column 3, Lines 48-49, and Examples II, VIII, and IX).

As to Claims 2-6 and 11-14, Rezuke discloses the composite filter element (16) is made of a non-woven polyester batting. (Figures 1, 2, 2a, and 2b; and Column 2, Line 45 thru Column 3, Line 20).

5. Claims 1-17 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being anticipated by Messier (US 5639452).

As to Claims 1, 2, 7, 8, 9, 10, and 15-17, Messier discloses a combination wherein an absorbent article made of a textile is utilized in combination with an active agent having an electrostatic change. Specifically Messier discloses the absorbent article or carrier component could be a facemask and the active agent is iodinated resin having a strong base anion exchange. (Figures 7-11; Column 6; Column 35, Lines 20-35).

As to Claims 3-6 and 11-14, Messier discloses the absorbent article or carrier component is made from a non-woven, fiber based, sponge-like material. Specifically, Messier discloses a sponge (39) having a matrix structure (40). (Columns 33 and 34).

6. Claims 1-17 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being anticipated by Messier (US 6045820).

As to Claims 1, 2, 7, 8, 9, 10, and 15-17, Messier discloses a combination wherein an absorbent article made of a textile is utilized in combination with an active agent having an electrostatic charge. Specifically Messier discloses the absorbent article or carrier component could be a facemask and the active agent is iodinated resin having a strong base anion exchange. (Figures 7-11; Column 6; Column 35, Lines 27-42).

As to Claims 3-6 and 11-14, Messier discloses the absorbent article or carrier component is made from a non-woven, fiber based, sponge-like material. Specifically, Messier discloses a sponge (39) having a matrix structure (40). (Columns 33 and 34).

7. Claims 1-17 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being anticipated by Messier (US 5980827).

As to Claims 1, 2, 7, 8, 9, 10, and 15-17, Messier discloses a combination wherein an absorbent article made of a textile is utilized in combination with an active agent having an electrostatic charge. Specifically Messier discloses the absorbent article or carrier component could be a facemask and the active agent is iodinated resin having a strong base anion exchange. (Figures 7-11; Column 6; Column 35, Line 61 thru Column 36, Line 19).

As to Claims 3-6 and 11-14, Messier discloses the absorbent article or carrier component is made from a non-woven, fiber based, sponge-like material. Specifically, Messier discloses a sponge (39) having a matrix structure (40). (Columns 33 and 34).

Response to Arguments

8. Applicant's arguments filed July 9, 2007 have been fully considered but they are not persuasive. Applicant asserts Rezuke fails to teach or fairly suggest a periphery that contains a tri-dimensional permeable filtering material affixed to the periphery. Examiner respectfully disagrees with Applicant's assertion. The mask of Rezuke (Figure 3) is made from the composite materials (seen in Figures 1, 2, 2a, and 2b). The composition of the mask contains a filtering layer, a center composite material layer and a backing layer. As the mask is formed with each of the aforementioned layers, inherently the composite is present in the periphery of the mask as recited within the claim limitations. Therefore, the rejection of claims 1-16 has been maintained..

Conclusion

9. The prior art made of record and not relied upon is considered pertinent to applicant's disclosure. Berrigan et al. (5,641,555).

10. Applicant's amendment necessitated the new ground(s) of rejection presented in this Office action. Accordingly, THIS ACTION IS MADE FINAL. See MPEP § 706.07(a). Applicant is reminded of the extension of time policy as set forth in 37 CFR 1.136(a).

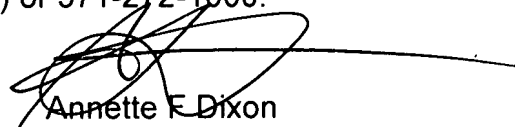

A shortened statutory period for reply to this final action is set to expire THREE MONTHS from the mailing date of this action. In the event a first reply is filed within TWO MONTHS of the mailing date of this final action and the advisory action is not mailed until after the end of the THREE-MONTH shortened statutory period, then the shortened statutory period will expire on the date the advisory action is mailed, and any extension fee pursuant to 37 CFR 1.136(a) will be calculated from the mailing date of the advisory action. In no event, however, will the statutory period for reply expire later than SIX MONTHS from the date of this final action.
